HOGSETT ANNOUNCES THAT U. S. ATTORNEY'S OFFICE WILL RE-LOCATE TO NEW ALBANY FOR THE DAY

PRESS RELEASE

NEW ALBANY, IND. - United States Attorney Joseph H. Hogsett announced today that, on Tuesday, June 14, 2011, the United States Attorney's Office will re-locate to New Albany for most of the entire day. "I have always believed that government is at its best when it is as close as it can be to the people it serves. Having this Office physically re-located to the New Albany/Clarksville/ Jeffersonville area for a day will allow us to more effectively communicate what services we provide to the people of Southern Indiana, and how those services can be easily accessed."

A seminar entitled "Strengthening Hoosier Communities" will be held at the Holiday Inn Express, 411 W Spring Street, New Albany, Ind. The seminar will include sessions on Protecting Your Community - Terrorism and Emergency Preparedness; Preventing Violent Crime; Project Safe Childhood; Grant Writing - What You Need to Know; and Fighting Financial Fraud. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. with opening remarks at 8:45 a.m. The public is invited to attend any and all sessions.

Anyone interested in attending this event can register by e-mail at:
usains.registration@usdoj.gov.
